

Claims Consulting Services

Key to a successful and cost-effective risk management program.

Our experienced Marsh McLennan Agency (MMA) claims consulting team incorporates claims management best practices into your total risk management plan. MMA takes a proactive approach combined with early intervention that gives more control over the handling of the claim. Our hands on approach, national resources and respected relationships with carriers and vendors allows us to escalate your concerns and solve problems as well as engage appropriate resources to achieve the best possible results.

Our expansive claims program offers options for any size business:

- Dedicated claims consultant
- Claim reporting and special handling instructions to insurance carrier or third-party administrator (TPA)
- Claims review coordination
- Claims management training
- Workers' compensation fraud program
- Nurse triage partnerships
- Return-to-work programs
- Complex claims and coverage counsel
- Third party administrator vetting
- Advanced claims advocacy
- ClaimsPro workers' compensation program
- Specialty claim consultants (property, cyber, EPLI, executive risk, construction defect, etc.)

Identifying which claims are likely to become most complicated is crucial to the impact on your business and employees. With a proactive approach, you'll experience a reduction in claims severity and frequency.
