

BondsFast

Peace of mind knowing a bond can be accessed in minutes.

Bonds in the Blink of an Eye

To address the growing needs of our clients, Marsh McLennan Agency (MMA) – with the help of Liberty Mutual Surety™ – has developed an online program that allows you to immediately apply and print license and permit bonds in real-time through BondsFast. Use our online program to submit information, pay the first year's premium and then print the original bond within minutes. The bonds will run until cancelled, so there is no need to re-apply year after year. Just pay the annual renewal invoice and the bond will stay in place.

Using Surety to Grow Your Business

With 50 years of experience in the surety industry, MMA Midwest's surety department has worked with a multitude of clients to understand their specific needs and design services that support them. The professional relationships developed by the MMA surety team has led to an innate understanding of the importance of obtaining a bond as quickly and painlessly as possible to perform work.

“

We had a group of workers and several subcontractors waiting on-site to start a project, but the city wouldn't let us begin until a $10,000 License Bond was in place. We went on BondsFast.com and had the bond to the city five minutes later. BondsFast saved us time and money!
