Case study

The insurance broker of a Midwest PEO didn't have the industry knowledge or carrier relationships needed to keep up with company growth. This was creating services issues in addition to high healthcare and workers' compensation costs. MMA used its industry expertise and paired the PEO with one of the country's premier workers' compensation carriers. We also re-negotiated their employee benefits program and offered cost-effective alternatives.

As a result, the company achieved significant savings:

$850K

cost savings on their employee benefit premiums

$250K

savings in hard costs

Your future is limitless.SM
